From the Desk

of the Director

Hello everyone,

I'm sure everyone is looking forward to spring. When I awoke to snow on the ground yesterday morning, I was quite disappointed. The daffodils and hyacinths which had been so beautiful the day before were flat to the ground. But today their colorful blooms have come back to life and hope of spring is once again in the air.

We are quite busy here with some of our annual fundraising events. Last Sunday we hosted our Annual Spring Spaghetti Dinner and had a nice turnout for the event. We served about 120 persons before the day was out. Thanks to all who came and ate and to all the volunteers who helped prepare and serve the meal. This week-end, April 1 & 2 will be our 15th Annual Trash and Treasures Sale. We hope, if you are in the area, you will visit and browse through our merchandise. We will surely have something that you need.

Spring also brings to mind that our Annual Gathering will soon be upon us. This is our 30th so we hope to make it a special event. Irma and her crew are making plans for workshops and activities that everyone should enjoy. Please mark the dates and plan to be with us this year. Gathering will be from Thursday, August 11 through Sunday August 14. We hope to have all the plans in place so that your Gathering packet can be included with this Journal. If not, please look for it in the mail soon. We hope you will be able to join us. It promises to be a great year.

LEWIS COUNTY HOME CENTRAL COMMITTEE JOURNAL
1923 - 1932

Transcribed by D. Jane GILCHRIST

The following is a partial transcript of the Lewis County Home Central Committee.¹ This journal is approximately 6 1/2" x 10", black in color with a deep red on the spine and corners. It is a pre numbered journal.

The journal was located in the collection at the Lewis County Extension Office in a box of other similar journals and materials. Permission was granted by Liz POST, County 4-H Extension Agent to use the book for transcription. As of this date only a small portion has been transcribed.

The book appears to cover the June of 1923 thru Aug of 1932. However, there are instances where meeting minutes are missing although all pages appear to be in the journal.

I attempted to duplicate the writing exactly. Where words, phrases etc. are not technically correct but are transcribed as they appear [sic] appears. Each page of the journal is referenced by Pg #. Where pages were left blank in the book there is no corresponding note in the transcription.

For this paper the transcription is limited to July 11th 1924 although I will note that on Pg 146 there is a roll listed for the Home Central Committee 1931-32 lists Mrs. Denna WINEMILLER of the Stone Coal club as a representative. This author is Mrs. Denna WINEMILLER's namesake and maternal great grandmother. At the end of the journal starting on Pg 195 is a sign in for the 1929 FWC Jubilee. Denna WINEMILLER has signed in as attending on line 2. Additional sign in sheets are continued. These include Pg 198 1930 Play Day Register Dec. 4, 1930 and on the end fly a note of W.Va. Day - September 1, 1931 65 graduates 200 present.

WESTON ASYLUM CORRESPONDENCE

OLD 1883 INMATE LETTER FROM
WESTON WV INSANE ASSYLUM

Interesting content in this old 2-page (front & back) letter (about 8 x 10") written from the HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE at Weston, West Virginia on 2 July 1883. The letter is written on paper with LETTERHEAD from the institution, W. J. BLAND M.D., Superintendent, etc. The letter is written by INMATE J. J. CHARLTON to Jesse JONES.

"Jesse JONES was born near Hildale, in Monroe County, and settled, lived and died a prosperous man, merchant and farmer on Wolf Creek, at Bradshaw Church. This family of JONESes are of Welsh descent. His mother was from Grayson County, Virginia - Miss Margaret M. MILLER- and she married a CHARLTON as her second husband, and by him was the mother of the venerable J. J. CHARLTON, of CHARLTON's Mill, on Madam's Creek." (quoted from page 514 HISTORY OF SUMMERS COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA.)

EXCELLENT CONTENT in this old letter. CHARLTON describes the Institution buildings in great detail (especially measurements), furnishings (BILLIARD TABLES, etc.), a bathroom with hot & cold water, MUCH detail about the food & drink provided at every meal ("my trouble is not to eat too much"), etc. He then continues on the second page detailing several acquaintances in common with Jesse JONES who are also patients, with whom he has recently spoken. His conversation with one man named "PINE" ("born on m) father's land & in the old pine house") leads CHARLTON to include a little genealogical information and then into reminiscences (at first pleasant, but then becoming rather sorrowful).

He stops writing for a time but then starts the letter up once again.

Returning to his discussion of his fellow patients in the mental hospital he states: "THERE ARE MORE THAN 600 PATIENTS HERE: MANY FROM RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT; SOME FROM SECRET SINS. SOME FROM DISAPPOINTMENTS; & DRUNKENNESS WITH A FEW."

He describes the restrictions upon his freedom, concluding that: "I am almost free ... ," but finishes his letter admitting that: "monotony & the ever-recurring sameness, is becoming tiresome ... In fact-IN THIS GREAT CROWD I AM LONELY. I long to see my own family."

A full transcription of J. J. CHARLTON's letter follows:

Dear Br.
Tis now 3 p.m. Thermometer, 84 degrees.

I rec'd your kind & thrice welcome letter at 11 this morning: The hospital is 1080 ft. in length, The Center building 120 x 80 ft. & 6 story high & to the top of Spire which stands on the Dome, is 208 ft.

My room is in the building, ,joining the Centre one, is 40 ft. wide & 190 in length, with a 10 ft. hall running through the center, with bedrooms on each side 10 ft. square, a door opening into the hall, & a window on the outside. This building is 3 story; each of the halls are built & furnished alike, a Billard table, good beds, on wire springs; chairs, spttons(spittoons?), an abundance of water for all purposes; a bathroom, temperature to suit your wish, our fare or diet is good & more than enough; good light bread, coffee for breakfast-water from a good cold spring for dinner & tea for supper, with beef mutton, butter, rice, hominy, beans, potatoes, lettuce, onions, beets-corn mush, oat-mush, ??? always, vinegar & pepper, & sugar & my trouble is not to eat too much:

Another similar, is joined to this one 40 x 190 ft. & 3 story; then continued for 300 ft. or more, a wing one story high; with numerous cells & projections; and r (are) the same on each side of the center building: The center building is a splendid & imposing structure; and finished & furnished, with regard to use, comfort, & convenience & also to please the eye: surely not less than $1,000,000 would quite(?) cost of all the Hospital buildings and it takes about $100,000 yearly to run it-but I must close this description or I will not have any room for anything also & would take many pages to mention all.

10 min. to 5 & 82 degrees. We take supper at 's past 5. I often see Shiry(?), talked with him this evening & read to him the letter which I rec'd from you today. He says, tell you, he is going through a thorough course of medisne & expects soon to get a discharge:

I also see Pine often. Talked with him today; He was born on my father's land & in the old pine house as we used to call it & the logs of which you hauled to another place on the hillside & built your first dwelling house, on Phillip BEAMER's land; he says he was 4 years old when his father left there. His father built the old still house at the spring: O how often you & I have drank from that spring; the bare mention of which awakens so many fond & pleasing recollections: But I must not follow such strains pleasant though they be, but hold them in reserve for our anticipated & happy meeting; soon I believe will be.

Yz past 6 & very warm. The sun is shining in at my window: I have not seen Settles(?). His attendant says he is well but very cross, writes poetry almost continually. I will try & get to see him: Pine is 69 or 70 years old. There are more than 600 patients here: many from religious excitement; some from secret sins. Some from disappointments; & drunkenness withe?) a few:

I have not very much to complain of here: I am almost free. I go where I choose, so I am in at meal time & at night, is all that is required; My health is very good. This is the third fair.

Ha! HA! Ha!

All I ask is a chance to prove that money can't make me happy.

WARD RESEARCH

Anita FIDLER has been searching for her ancestor, Edward WARD for two decades. Here's information she has compiled on the WARD and allied families hoping to find some clues. If you can help, her e-mail address is anita-jean@comcast.net

Daniel WARD, born 15 September 1779, possibly in Maryland, d. 17 November 1851, m. Ellen/Eleanor BENNETT BRIAN/BRYANT/BRIANT (1787 - after 1875), The couple was married 1808 in Harrison County, (W)V. Marriage certificate signed by James H. TAYLOR, Clerk of Harrison County, said: "I find therein recorded that Daniel WARD and Eleanor BRION (sic) were married in this county on the 13th day of February, in the year 1808, by Rev. John DAVIS

The name of Daniel's spouse was spelled Ellenor/Ellen/Nellie BRION/BRYAN/BRIAN/BRYANT/BRIANT in different documents. One time Ellen BENNETT was crossed out and Ellen BRYANT inserted.

Daniel fought under Capt. John MCWHORTER in Virginia Militia. September 18, 1812-April 15, 1813. He was discharged at the Rapids on the Maumee River in Ohio, from the Army commanded by General HARRISON. Daniel WARD signed as a witness for land sale in 1818 in Champaign/Clark County, OH. The land was the first record owned by Edmund WEST.

Daniel WARD was present at the estate sale of George STEWART in Clark County, OH, 14 April, 1827. George SHAUL HENKLE was the clerk. George was the second husband of Rosannah ELLSWORTH SHAUL. Rosannah was first married to Peter SHAUL. She married George STEWART in 1812 in Champaign County, OH. At the sale of George STEWART's estate, Daniel purchased an iron wedge and auger, 5 crocks and jars, spinning wheel, coverlet, shirt and table cloth, and a grey mare.

The above last two pieces of information are from THE SHAUL FAMILY HISTORY by Bonne and SHAUL.

Daniel died 17 November 1851, and is buried in Vernon Cemetery, Clark County, OH. A photo of his grave is on the web at FIND A GRAVE. I visited the cemetery long ago and the following are buried beside or near each other: Daniel WARD; Ann, consort of Jacob BALLARD; Jesse HARBERT, husband of Christie Anna WARD; Isaac WARD, 1814-1882 nearby

As of November 2010, have the following family group for this Daniel WARD. Corrections welcome.

Daniel WARD and Eleanor, parents of Elizabeth (Betsy) b. ca 1819 Virginia m. Peter DEMORY; Christiana m. Jacob BALLARD 1830, Clark County, OH; Isaac b. 26 Feb., 1814 VA d. 1882 Clark County, OH m. Sarah GRUBB; Rebecca b.

1815 OH m. John K. HARBERT. This couple later in Linn County, Iowa.

Priscilla b. ca. 1803 m. John DEMORY. Peter and John DEMORY were brothers, but evidently Catherine (DEMORY?) was not their sister???
Corrections welcome.

Rebecca WARD, above, m. John HARBERT Champ. County, OH. 7 April, 1835, Champaign County, OH. have 9 children listed for the couple.

The HARBERTs were in Champaign County, OH in 1850, but where was Daniel WARD at that time? Friends have searched and found NO Daniel WARD in OH anywhere near the right age in 1850. I am thinking that maybe Daniel was a middle name and we have no given name, thus this challenge. Yet the name on the grave marker is DANIEL. Where was he when he died? I have found no will or estate settlement for him as of November 2010.

Mr. and Mrs. HARBERT, as well as Daniel's widow, Ellen, lived in Graham Twp., Johnson County, IA. The family was in the 1870 census there. I think I am wrong here. Zack BENNETT shares that Eleanor/Ellen was in the home of John and Priscilla WARD DEMORY in 1870 in Graham Twp., Johnson County, IA. Ellen was age 83 then.

I have the following documents from Washington DC. that had been filed by Eleanor BENNETT/BRYAN/WARD:

Attending Daniel's funeral, and verifying that Daniel's widow Ellen WARD had never re-married after Daniel's death, were John K. HARBERT and his wife Rebecca.

Also witnessing parts of the pension application were John C. MATTOX and wife Ellen, also of Johnson County, Iowa.

The "Transfer Letter" from the Pension Agency dated 5 February 1876 stated that an application for a transfer from said agency by Ellen WARD 14 February 1871 under certificate 5019 was last paid on 4 December 1875 $8.00 and was to continue to be paid $8.00. The post office of the pension agency requesting the transfer was post office Vienna Cross Roads Clark Co. • Ohio. ("Vienna X Roads") to presumably Iowa.

Ellen was 84 years of age in 1871 when she first applied for the pension, making her born about 1787. Ellen had applied for bounty land for Daniel in about 1858, but she didn't know where the record was, the number of acres, or seemingly much more than that she had applied. Kurt COOK (who had thought that HIS Eleanor was this Eleanor, but his Eleanor was Eleanor BROWN (not BRYANT) has now supplied this information. The land was in Brownsville, Nebraska and was for 160 acres. A copy of this bounty land is now in Daniel's folder. The land was awarded in 1862 and was issued by Abraham Lincoln. Section 27, township 5. No information as to what happened to the land.

The above is the sum and total of the information I have for Daniel WARD. The reason I have tried so hard to identify his parents is that he may have been related to my own Edward/John WARD 1764-1864 whose wife was Nancy SHAUL/SHALL.

There is more information In Harrison County, (W)V, from 1808. but no knowledge if WARDS were related Nancy WARD m. Peter SHAUL 21 August 1808. Nancy's father was a William WARD, possibly from Maryland.

My Edward WARD and Nancy SHAUL WARD had a daughter Elizabeth in Clarksburg. 1808.

Daniel and Ellen/ Eleanor BENNETT BRYANT WARD, Peter and Nancy WARD SHAUL, Saul and Elizabeth WARD SHAUL, and my Edward and Nancy SHAUL WARD were all in Champaign/Clark County, OH abt. 1813. My question: How can I know if these people were all related to each other?

The family of John K. HARBERT and Rebecca WARD daughter of Daniel and Ellen BENNETT BRYANT WARD, were in the 1850 census of Union Twp., Champaign County, OH!!!!!!

Daniel was not in the household though, and he d. 1851 and is buried in Clark County! Friends could not find Daniel in ANY county in OH in 1850. Where were Daniel and Ellenor/Ellen in 1850?????????

The HARBERTs attended the funeral of Daniel who, once again, is buried in Vernon Cemetery in Clark County, OH with d. of 1851.

A SHAUL researcher tried to locate Daniel in Eleanor/Ellen in Iowa, in case they had gone there, returning to OH by 1851:

I cannot find Daniel or Ellen in the search criteria for the 1850 census. I put in Ellen as born 1787 +/- 5 years and Daniel born 1779 +/- 5 yrs. There are only 4 "townships" listed for Iowa in the 1850 census - Brush Run, English River, Green and Marengo. Well, none of them were large, 3,4,5 and 10 pages. No WARDS at all in Iowa according to the 1850 US census. Perhaps they did not get to the smaller settlements.

Daniel WARD, 1779-1851. In Harrison County, WV when he m. Eleanor/Ellen BRYAN/BRYANT in 1808. To Clark County, OH early, where he died. Was in War 1812. Wife petitioned for pension from Johnson County, IA. His da. Rebecca m. John K. HARBERT. Daniel had lived at Vienna Cross Roads in Clark County, OH.

Wife of Daniel WARD. Daniel d. 1851 Vienna Cross Roads Clark County, OH I have not been able to discover a will or probate for Daniel WARD.

I HAVE, however information concerning his wife. I have these documents:

1. Widow's Pension Claim for Daniel's War of 1812 service. Maiden name "Nelly BRYANT."
2. Widow's Pension Claim from Clerk of Harrison Co. WV A marriage certificate: marriage of Daniel WARD and "Eleanor BRION".
3. James H. Taylor Clerk of Harrison Co I find therein recorded that Daniel WARD and Eleanor BRION were married in this county on the 13th day of February, in the year 1808, by Rev. John DAVIS
4. Pension claim of Ellen WARD 1872
5. Claim for widow's pension "maiden name was Eleanor BRION".
6. Claim for widow's pension Johnson County, Iowa 24 day of May AD eighteen hundred and seventy one: that she was married under the name of Ellen BENNETT (BENNETT crossed out! ! ! !. AF) BRYANT to the said Daniel WARD on the 14th day of February AD 1809 as well as she can now recollect. Ellen (x her mark) WARD
7. Also appeared James C. MATTOX and Ellen MATTOX both residing in the county of Johnson and State of Iowa (signed their own names)
8. Appeared witnesses John K. HARBERT and Rebecca HARBERT. John Signed. Rebecca "x". (Rebecca was daughter of Daniel and Ellen/Eleanor/Nelly WARD. John and Rebecca were m. 7 April, 1835 Champaign County, OH. AF)

We can assume that since the above information submitted by and for the widow herself, is actual first person documentation and since I have copies of all of the above documents, I suggest that Nelly/Ellen/Eleanor's maiden name was BENNETT.

Married Twice in One Day

Editor's Note: The HARDMAN Legacy, a story about this same family in Tipton, IA, was published in HCJ Vol. XXVII, Iss. 2.

Tipton Advertiser 11 March 1854 pg 2 col.2

At the residence of Mr. Henry HARDMAN, on Thursday, the 2d inst., by Rev. BLACKFORD, Cyrus RIDENOUR to Miss Cynthia HARDMAN, both of this county. "There is a joy beyond all that the mistrel hath told, When two that are linked in one heavenly tie With brows never changing and hearts never cold, Love through all ills and love on --till they die."

There are a few facts connected with the above marriage and a tinge of romance that is to true and to good to be lost. We therefore publish them that the public may know and future generations learn that Once upon a time there happened in the county of Cedar, that one Cyrus, the diminutive, was married unto one Cynthia the great, twice upon the same day--and it came to pass in this wise that one Henry had gone out into the highways and to the farm houses and called in his guests to make merry for the honor of Cynthia who had spent the summer days of her life with him, and was now about to go out with Cyrus, the diminutive.

The guests had assembled, many smiling and bright faces were there. Henry, the master of the feast, and of the marriage ceremony, had given express orders how matters should be conducted. But lo! and behold while Henry and his good old lady were in another department of the house, and Cain, their elder son, was out at the manger, making convenient arrangements for his own gallant charger for he had been dispatched to bring in the groomsman, and had just returned from the journey, the ceremony was performed and Cyrus and Cynthia were pronounced husband and wife.

They were receiving the congratulations of their friends, when Henry and his good old lady entered the room. They were informed what had taken place, and it displeased them much, and Henry's brow was knit with wrath and displeasure, and he said unto Parson BRIANT --"It is not lawful for thee to marry this couple without license for remember that Cain had the license in his pocket and was out acting as groom. Warm altercation took place between Henry and the parson and the parson went away displeased so much so that he would not participate in the marriage dinner, for Henry had forbid the parson from making any further explanations about his domicile. The bountiful meal was over, and the day was fast passing away. The legality of their marriage was discussed with ingenuity, talent, and warmth until Henry, the master of the day, decreed that it was illegal and he would not have them live there in adultery. So he talked loudly and long about sending for a Justice of the Peace to complete in a lawful manner the work which the parson supposed he had done according to the law of the land. But when Henry grew calm and serene, he remembered that Cain, his elder son, had given to the parson, ere he hasteth away, the license, and behold! Henry fainted himself in a tight place! So he wisely concluded that he would call his messenger and send him forth to summon the parson again to his residence and in his presence: and he came although reluctantly.

He ordered the parties again upon the door. Part of Henry 's invited guests, for there were many, were in the dining room still feasting. Henry crieth out, with a loud voice -Hold on until all my guests shall have come in. The parson obeyed and when all were assembled in the room and Henry beheld that all things were right and in readiness, he commanded that the ceremony should proceed and it did. And Cyrus the diminutive and Cynthia the great, were bound twice with the silken chord and heavenly tie, upon the same day and it pleased Henry and all present well. It then appeared satisfactory to all concerned, and Henry exclaimed how good a thing it is for brethren to dwell in peace together. So he and the parson set down at the table in brotherly love and peace, and ate long and heartily together. The remainder concerning the marriage will be written in another Book. A.R.

Don NORMAN of Gilmer County and Elyria, OH, was the recipient of the 2010 John Hacker Award from the Hacker's Creek Pioneer Descendants at their annual banquet in August. He was honored for his thirty-plus year dedication compiling hundreds of family histories of West Virginia families. He willingly shares these with the public through the HCPD website at <http://www.hackerscreek.com>.

Ann WILFONG of Lewis County was the recipient of the 2010 Margaret Hacker Award. Her award recognized her thousands of hours of donated service to the organization and to the preservation of local history and genealogy of the Central West Virginia area.

The awards are named for John HACKER, the first permanent European settler in Lewis County. Margaret was his wife and the first Eupropean woman know to have given birth given birth in the county. Their firstborn son, William HACKER, was one of the authors of the original manuscript about the earliest days of settlement in what is now West Virginia. The manuscript was later added to by Alexander Scott Withers and published under the title, Chronicles of Border Warfare.

The awards were presented by Betty Ann NICHOLSON, executive director of the organization at HCPD's annual banquet in August at the Broad Street United Methodist Church.

3. I hope someone can help me with information on John B. JORDAN, b 7 August 1812, d 11 June 1888 and is buried in the Chestnut Grove Cemetery with his wife, Francis PROPST JORDAN. The Webster County Courthouse was burned in 1888 so they do not have record of his death, nor a Will. I do have the death a record for his wife, Francis, but it does not show names of her parents so I don't know if John's would either. But perhaps his Will might show names of at least some of his relatives.

John B. JORDAN's father is Andrew John JORDAN, b 1790, d 4 January 1872 but I don't have written proof of that, which is what I'm really looking for. Andrew John JORDAN moved to Illinois during the Civil War with several of his adult children, but John B stayed in WV. John B.'s daughter is Elizabeth "Hattie" JORDAN CUTLIP, b 30 January 1847, d 18 March 1908. Any help would be greatly appreciated.
